Apr - Aug 2025

Built in 1862 by architect Julius Alfred Chatwin, the building was originally designed as a library for St Philips Church across the road. It later became the Birmingham Joint Stock bank. In 1889 (the year Birmingham received official city status) Lloyd's bank took ownership of the premises. More than a century later the Grade II listed building is now The Old Joint Stock Pub as well as the UK's highest seller of London Pride.

Although the pub has been refurbished and modernised, it showcases the bank's original features and fittings. The Old Joint Stock boasts four private spaces, a huge main bar area and a fringe theatre. Combined with its central location and classic British cuisine, it offers a stunning social hub in the heart of the city centre.

The Old Joint Stock Theatre has a variety of productions all year round, with a mix of in-house productions, co-productions and visiting companies. If you love fringe theatre you will love the experience at the Old Joint Stock Theatre. Our programme of shows is always busy and features everything from new writing, musical theatre, improv comedy, and more!

the Gin Chronicles A SCOTTISH ADVENTURE

If you enjoyed The Goon Show, Monty Python or the works of P.G.Wodehouse, it is entirely rational that you would enjoy "The Gin Chronicles: A Scottish Adventure". Vintage, radio-style comedy adventures that pick you up and take you into a world of mischief, mayhem, live sound effects and 1940s derring-do that'll have you leaving with a great big smile on your face.

John Jobling is an endearing upper-class half-wit who stumbles across amateur detection as a pastime. Doris Golightly is his erstwhile housemaid who ends up being his assistant in order to stop him from wandering into ridiculous situations, with mixed results.

In this adventure, they seek to thwart a nazi plot to steal all of the country's juniper berries and, by extension, deny this Sceptred Isle its gin supply (GASPI!) With our very own gin distilled by Master Distiller Stuart Brown at the Deerness Distillery on Orkney, along with some wonderful premium tonics from Wildleaf Drinks, how can you possibly go wrong? So slip on something vintage and come & join The Misfits of London in 1947.
