Sept - Dec 2025

Built in 1862 by architect Julius Alfred Chatwin, the building was originally designed as a library for St Philips Church across the road. It later became the Birmingham Joint Stock bank. In 1889 (the year Birmingham received official city status) Lloyd's bank took ownership of the premises. More than a century later the Grade II listed building is now The Old Joint Stock Pub as well as the UK's highest seller of London Pride.

Although the pub has been refurbished and modernised, it showcases the bank's original features and fittings. The Old Joint Stock boasts four private spaces, a huge main bar area and a fringe theatre. Combined with its central location and classic British cuisine, it offers a stunning social hub in the heart of the city centre.

Venue History

As well as our beautiful bar, we are also home to a professional 80 seat black box studio theatre, founded in 2006 on our second floor.

The Old Joint Stock Theatre has a variety of productions all year round, with a mix of in-house productions, co-productions and visiting companies. If you love fringe theatre you will love the experience at the Old Joint Stock Theatre. Our programme of shows is always busy and features everything from new writing, musical theatre, improv comedy, and more!

Burnin' Love Bingo with Elvis Lesley

5th Sept
Tickets £17

Get ready for an evening of musical comedy, bingo chaos, reworked hits, and a whole lotta fun.

Join award-winning character comedian Tracey Collins (Shell Suit Cher, Audrey Heartburn) as she brings another gloriously ridiculous bingo show to the stage.

The Pink List

6th Sept
Tickets from £14

1957, West Germany.

The battle against the Nazis ended twelve years ago - but for Karl, a gay concentration camp survivor, the war never truly ended. Still criminalised under Nazi law, his life is on trial.

From the creator of Fabulett 1933, The Pink List is a haunting one-person musical inspired by untold stories of queer men in post-war Germany – names recorded in the Pink Lists, then erased.

Michael Auger: Here We Go Again

15th Nov

Tickets £18

Get ready for an unforgettable evening as Michael Auger, star of the Britain's Got Talent-winning group Collabro, returns to the stage with his brand-new solo show Here We Go Again. Taking place in the intimate setting of The Old Joint Stock Theatre, this one-night-only event promises a spectacular showcase of musical theatre favourites alongside original tracks from Michael's debut solo album.

Renowned for his rich vocals and charismatic stage presence, Michael will take audiences on a journey through some of the most iconic songs ever written for the stage - from heart-stirring ballads to show-stopping anthems. Whether you're a fan of Les Misérables, Wicked, or The Greatest Showman, this show has something to ignite every theatre lover's soul.

But that's not all - Michael will also be performing songs from his debut album, blending timeless theatrical classics with pop hits, Here We Go Again is a celebration of music, storytelling, and the power of live performance.

RHINESTONE COMEDIAN

'A plethora of memorable gags... a relevant and witty comedian' (Chortle)

'Rampantly engaging' (The List)

Treat yourself to a deliciously witty and hilarious night out as comedian Andrew White takes his star-spangled stand-up rodeo out on the road for a sophomore national tour.

Praised by Joe Lycett as "very exciting and very funny", Andrew has grown a reputation for his strong writing and charming onstage persona, tackling big topics with irreverent swipes, and deep diving into nonsense with over-analytical obsession. From the politics of all-you-can-eat buffets to the technological shortcomings of racists, this show is exactly the sparkly-heeled, high-fashion, raucously funny, no-holds-barred night out you've been looking for!

I'll Be Back

20th Nov

Tickets £14

Judgement Day: 1997. Humanity is destroyed by Skynet, an AI weapons system which becomes self-aware and launches a nuclear apocalypse which kills three billion people. A decades-long war against the machines ensues as humanity fights for its survival.

Tuesday: 2032. The war is over, and those who remain struggle to find a way to rebuild from the ashes. All seems hopeless, until one woman volunteers for cybernetic enhancement to become a Terminator built with the only software which survived - Windows 95. She travels through time to 1992 on a quest through the West Midlands to stop Judgment Day. Will she succeed?

I'LL BE BACK

I'll Be Back is the story of an embittered Cyberdyne Systems scientist (Dudley branch) who must become a Windows 95 Terminator, and travel back in time in order to right all of her wrongs. This troubled and malfunctioning killing machine returns to a world before Judgment Day on a quest to save humanity from the robots she helped to create, and to discover what it really means to be human.

December

It's Christmas Eve, and Hollywood star Paul Hogan is feeling old and forgotten — the day after his old screen companion, Burt the crocodile, passed away at the ripe old age of 90. On the brink, Paul wonders if life would have been better if he'd never been born. Meanwhile, Burt is sent back down to Earth to save Paul and show him the positive impact his life has had on the world — so that Burt, in turn, can earn his wings.

Expect big songs, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Hugh Jackman, and a tap-dancing croc... wearing Crocs. What more could you want to get into the Christmas spirit?

PINOCCHIO

Christmas Dreams and wonderland wishes come true this December as the Old Joint Stock presents a musical reimaging of the classic story Pinocchio, this visually beautiful retelling will be the perfect festive treat for the whole family.

The magical and curious puppet Pinocchio wants to be a real boy, follow him on his journey as he navigates his way through wondrous and treacherous landscapes, encountering a whole host of weird and wonderful characters along the way, all the while accompanied by a particularly curious cricket.

Chatwin Room

The Chatwin Room is situated on the first floor. Named after the architect of the building, the space is complete with its own private bar and bartender, who will look after you for the duration of your event. The space can accommodate up to 35 guests seated and 60 guests standing making it the perfect spot for informal drinks and buffet dining. During the week the set-up can also be altered to accommodate meetings and corporate bookings.

The Mezzanine Balcony

Our stunning Balcony can accommodate up to 50 guests standing or 38 guests seating. Positioned above our main bar the space offers a bird's eye view of the venue, and although exclusive, still benefits from the atmosphere from the main bar and restaurant area. The Balcony is perfect for larger private dining or drinks and a buffet.

The Managers Office

In the 1800s The Old Joint Stock was a bank; this space was the original managers office. Today, the Managers Office offers an intimate dining space located on ground floor, near the main bar. It is available for: meetings, buffet, corporate events and sit-down meals - accommodating up to 30 guests standing or 18 guests seated.
